

"Your Great-Grandma brought this amethyst pin from the old country."

Treasured Collections

Alison Hird of Treasured Collections is an administrative professional who has worked in museum collections management for over 12 years.

She offers to provide her proven expertise in artifact cataloguing, photography and documenting provenance.

Alison has experience with all types of artifacts including: textiles, military, photographs & archival materials to modern day collections.

An honest and efficient worker, Alison brings this professional service to your door in complete confidence and privacy.

What colleagues/volunteers say about Alison

"Alison has that rare blend of talents. She's both a creative thinker and super-organized."

".... Organizational and technological skills of the highest caliber..."

".... Well-developed computer abilities..."

".... Has a keen interest in family history and historical artifacts..."

".... Well versed in the history of W. J. Hughes & Sons "Corn Flower" Limited glassware..."

CATALOGUE YOUR FAMILY HEIRLOOMS

You may wish to catalogue your collection for many purposes. To arrange insurance, for security, to note the condition of your artifacts, or to document the family connections for each item passed down your family.

If you don't have time to do this yourself, or don't know how, then this service is for you. Treasured Collections can capture and document your family memories to share with generations to come.

Inventory

- On-site inventory listing of your collection.

Photography

- Photograph individual items.

Provenance

- Document your known history about each item, who it had belonged to, related stories, or where it was purchased.

Appraisals/Receipt of Purchase

- Scan and record supporting reference materials such as authentication certificate, professional appraisal, or purchase receipts.

Presentation

- Final format includes:
 - Printed catalogue booklet
 - Computer version by email, or on disc.

Cost of Service

- Depending on your budget and the size of your collection, each project will vary. You may select from a simple list, an inventory with photographs, or a fully described colour catalogue noting family connections. Telephone to discuss your project.

Please note:

This is service does not include genealogy research, appraisal or identification.

Treasured Collections is part of the Shield Group

Alison Hird

www.treasuredcollections.ca

Treasured Collections, 25 Briarwood Drive Caledon, ON, L7K 0N1 Tel 519-940-4877 alison@treasuredcollections.ca